1. Report from the JCR President

Alice: Matriculation might be made optional. Thoughts?

Lilya: What exactly will happen?

Alice: Currently you must attend the matriculation ceremony to become a member of the university. This would make it an online process, though the ceremony will still exist it will be optional.

Ben L: So what does it change?

Alice: Nothing really

Akshay: Cherwell reported on this. Essentially it's an administrative nightmare if anyone misses the ceremony.

Zereena: The only obstruction to the ceremony would be the financial aspect of having to buy subfusc, but since everyone needs subfusc for exams anyway then I feel the mandatory ceremony is fine.

Ben T: I feel like there are a lot of people who wouldn't wanna go

Alice: Straw poll please

Most liked the idea, a few didn't, some didn't care.

3. Reading from the Poet Laureate

My second race- still bizarre to see
This dash for the ring of lettuce,
As if it were the edge of bliss.

Here I hear from ukuleles the serious music made, and taste the Pimms which flows like water. Slow, my tortoise, slow:

make the summer's moment last.

4. Ratifications from Previous Meetings

Suspended Students Voting Rights

This JCR Notes:

- 1) That suspended students cease to be full members of the JCR once their status as not in statu pupillari begins.
- 2) That suspended students will automatically become full members of the JCR again once they return to in statu pupillari.
- 3) That the constitution currently reads: "4. IV. Any College member not in statu pupillari may gain permission to become a Member. An ordinary motion in a JCR Meeting is required, and they will be expected to pay the Levy;"
- 4) That the term of office of JCR committee members and representatives will not always align with the time suspended students are away from college.

This JCR Believes:

- 1) That all full members of the JCR should be able to vote for their representatives.
- 2) That suspended students should therefore have the right to vote in JCR elections.

This JCR Resolves:

- 1) to replace Section 4. Clause IV. with a clause which reads: "Any full JCR member not in statu pupillari will retain the right to vote in JCR elections. Any College member not in statu pupillari may gain permission to become a full JCR Member. An ordinary motion in a JCR Meeting is required, and they will be expected to pay the Levy. "

7. Charities Motions

8. Monetary Motions

This JCR Notes

1. That this year we won Corpus Challenge
2. That as the victors of Corpus Challenge (and despite the best efforts of the esteemed Clubs and Societies Officer) we now have the Challenge Bowl
3. That the Challenge Bowl has the victors of the Corpus Challenge engraved into it each year, but this has not been done since 2011
4. That the Clubs and Societies Officer has found a quote from The Oxford Engraver for the repair and engraving of the Challenge Bowl which comes to £66 in total

This JCR Believes

1. That the Corpus Challenge is an important part of the JCR's calendar, being enjoyed each year by the majority of its members
2. That (in addition to the missing engravings) the Challenge Bowl is in a state of disrepair, being both misshapen and in need of a considerable clean and polish
3. That the quote provided for the repair and engraving of the Challenge Bowl is reasonable
4. That the JCR of Corpus Christi Cambridge should contribute to the cost of this Challenge Bowl Servicing

This JCR Resolves

1. To mandate the Treasurer to pay £66 to the Oxford Engraver for the servicing of the Challenge Bowl
2. To mandate the Clubs and Societies Officer to contact the Treasurer of Corpus Christi Cambridge to request that they contribute £33 to the servicing of the Challenge Bowl

Proposed: Thomas Munro

Seconded: Zereena Arshad

SFQ:

Frances: Is the cost for updating last 4 years or just this year's victory?

Tom: Update everything

Debate: None

Food For ThoughtThis JCR Notes:

- 1) The best way to a JCR's heart is through its stomach
- 2) The food in hall can at times make this JCR feel a bit heartless

This JCR Believes:

- 1) As we eat the food, we probably know what we're talking about so should tell senior staff

- 2) So far our DO has summoned a council of vegans and is imposing many a vegetable upon the Manciple which is why we got Falafel burgers last week (not to toot my own horn), but the DO should probs do this more than like once a year, cos really that seems a tad silly
- 3) Also our DO has also aided the Internationals Rep to run some (if I do say so myself) rather decent International Themed Formals, so we should probably make this a regular shindig

This JCR Resolves:

- 1) Change the standing orders of the Domestic Officer from “To arrange an annual meeting of the Food Committee and extraordinary meetings when necessary” to “To arrange a termly meeting of the Food Committee and extraordinary meetings when necessary”
- 2) Add to the standing orders of the Domestic officer: “To arrange International Themed formals in co-operation with the International Students Officer and Manciple up to twice per term in Michaelmas and Hilary, and up to once per term in Trinity”
- 3) Add to the standing orders of the International’s Officer: “To arrange International Themed formals in co-operation with the Domestic Officer and up to twice per term in Michaelmas and Hilary, and up to once per term in Trinity”

Proposed: Louisa Jagmetti

Seconded: Lilya Tata

SFQ:

Ben L: Must have two international formals a term?

Up to two.

Adam: Does it mandate at least one?

No

Lizzie: What’s the food committee bit?

Change from annual to termly food committee meetings.

Debate:

Ben L: Amend resolves 2 and 3 to “up to twice per term in Michaelmas and Hilary, and up to once per term in Trinity”. Taken as friendly.

Eve: Can we ensure international formals are done sensitively? I.e. avoid appropriation.

Zereena: It’s hard to semantically tie down, I think leave it to internationals’ officer and recommend they consult BME officer.
