Suspended Students Voting Rights

This JCR Notes:

- 1) That suspended students cease to be full members of the JCR once their status as not in statu pupillari begins.
- 2) That suspended students will automatically become full members of the JCR again once they return to in statu pupillari.
- 3) That the constitution currently reads: "4. IV. Any College member not in statu pupillari may gain permission to become a Member. An ordinary motion in a JCR Meeting is required, and they will be expected to pay the Levy;"
- 4) That the term of office of JCR committee members and representatives will not always align with the time suspended students are away from college.

This JCR Believes:

- 1) That all full members of the JCR should be able to vote for their representatives.
- 2) That suspended students should therefore have the right to vote in JCR elections.

This JCR Resolves:

- 1) to replace Section 4. Clause IV. with a clause which reads: "Any full JCR member not in statu pupillari will retain the right to vote in JCR elections. Any College member not in statu pupillari may gain permission to become a full JCR Member. An ordinary motion in a JCR Meeting is required, and they will be expected to pay the Levy. "

SFQ: None

Debate:

Thomas: why is this?

Fran PoI: Overlap of terms, this only allows for members to vote, not have any of the other benefits, which cost the JCR Money. Hence, they gain much and the JCR loses nothing

Cameron: Has to be approved by governing body before change, this is unlikely

Alice: this is separate, the College Officers don't care

Vote: The motion passes unanimously

A Rep for the Beer Cellar

This JCR Notes:

- 1) That Corpus has a beer cellar
- 2) That many JCRs have a specific representative for their interests in their respective college bars
- 3) That John Jackson (Buttery Manager) and Lance Briers-Dank (College Bartender) would both like a specific JCR representative to consult on issues relating to the college bar

This JCR Believes:

- 1) That we should have a specific representative for JCR interests in the beer cellar
- 2) JCR interests in the beer cellar are not entirely covered, and currently fall between the JCR President, the Domestic Officer, and the Entz President
- 3) That this role should be elected in Michaelmas
- 4) That this role should be a non-committee position, as there are currently a significant number of committee positions and we should not add to this number

This JCR Resolves:

- 1) To amend the JCR constitution as follows effective in coincidence with the upcoming Michaelmas 2017 JCR elections:
 - a. To append to 18 II: aa) Beer Cellar Representative
 - b. To append to 25 I: Beer Cellar Representative
- 2) To create the standing orders of the Beer Cellar Representative as described below, with effect to coincide with resolves 1

Beer Cellar Representative

Elected: Michaelmas

Term of Office: One Year

Duties

1. To run the Corpus Beer Cellar Facebook page to promote use of the Beer Cellar
2. To consult with the JCR members, the Buttery Manager, the College Bartender and any other relevant members of college on issues relating to the beer cellar. This could include, but is not limited to:
 - the range of drink and snacks stocked in the beer cellar

Reimbursing Woodcock

This JCR Notes:

- 1) Brendan Shepherd is the current Outreach Officer and Admissions Administrator
- 2) Brendan will be vacating his position at the end of this academic year to go on to teaching.

This JCR Believes:

- 1) Brendan has been an instrumental member of college staff for JCR members and has been vital in helping students through the admissions process
- 2) We should extend our thanks to Brendan for all his hard work tackling access issues during his time at Corpus
- 3) Peter Woodcock as CCCCCC has purchased a CCCCCC branded hat as a token of our thanks
- 4) Big Pete is a decent man who should be reimbursed

This JCR Resolves:

- 1) To mandate the Treasurer to reimburse Peter Woodcock of CCCCCC the amount of 16.99GBP

Proposed: Peter Woodcock

Seconded: Thomas Munro

SFQ:

Alex: Why did you buy it?

Pete: because Alice told me so

Ryan: really that expensive?

Pete: Yes

Teneeka: Are we doing anything else for Brendan?

Alice PoI: He and his successor are invited to JCR tea, but college also throws him a leaving party

"It is Peer Support Stash order time!!!!"

This JCR Notes:

- 1) That 5 new peer supporters started at the beginning of the term
- 2) That they will be buying peer support hoodies at £15 each
- 3) That in previous years, the JCR has subsidised the cost of these hoodies
- 4) The hoodies are snazzy and comfortable af

This JCR Believes:

- 1) Being so valued, wonderful, and important to the JCR, the peer supporters should be visible and recognisable
- 2) That peer support hoodies make the peer supporters visible and recognisable, and therefore are excellent at advertising mental health and welfare support available in college and the wider university
- 3) For all the fantastic work they do for the JCR, the peer supporters shouldn't have to pay for these hoodies out of their own pocket

This JCR Resolves:

To pay £75 to cover the cost of the hoodies for the 5 new peer supporters

Proposed: Abi "I love Peer Support" Newton

Seconded: Polly "yeah she really does love peer support" Williams-Blythen
