Dan stubbins informs us he has ordered posters

Dom tells us everything is paid for the challenge

Minutes of the last JCR meeting – no objections raised

Motion One – The Great Constitutional Reform Act - SECOND READING

This JCR notes

1. The JCR constitution is in need of great reform as parts of it are unworkable
2. The reform of the constitution requires this motion to pass in two successive JCR meetings

This JCR believes

1. The JCR constitutions should be in good working order so as to avoid unnecessary arguments amongst people in the JCR

This JCR resolves

1. To make the following amendments to the JCR constitution
  - a. Clarify the positions on committee and make sure they correspond with the Standing Orders, and to add to Article 5, statement 1 the position of Arts Officer to be on committee
  - b. The remove all references to a separate charities officer, and ensure that it is instead a Charities and RAG officer

- c. To add to Article 7, statement 1, regarding the policy document, “to be renewed annually at the third JCR meeting of Michaelmas term in a series of votes on each policy”
- d. To remove annoying repetition and ambiguities in the language of the JCR constitution, but not to change the spirit of the document in so doing.
- e. To add to Article 4, statement 10 “A contested by-election will be organised in the same manner as all other elections. In the case of an uncontested by-election, the single nominee can, at the discretion of the President and the Vice-President, be proclaimed into the office they seek by the use of a paper ballot in ~~passing of a motion in~~ the next JCR meeting with a 2/3 majority. If they don’t get a 2/3 vote, nominations re-open at the close of the JCR meeting and the next election will happen in the regular manner.”
- f. To add to Article 6, statement 63 “the Vice-President is permitted to state the constitutional position on what the JCR is discussing when s/he deems it necessary to be known.”
- g. In trinity term, reduce the quorum to 20
- h. Have the agenda sent around the JCR by noon ~~Friday~~ Saturday, not 9am, as it currently is.

Proposed – Nick Dickinson

Seconded – Donal O’hara

JW – makes coffee and causes great disruption

Changing the college group ballot

Coling holmes unhappy, problems with last year

New email system?

Livvy co-ordinates, kez and sam

SFQ

Debate

Donal - Is there still a strict deadline

Yes, but the aim is for bids to be early

Sam – whats to stop people bumping at the end?

Livvy - don't know what number your aiming for, and the system doesn't encourage late biuds

Megan – what about lideell

Its sorted, group bumps

Mike – the alienation of individuals still occurs, but it can now hurt without consequence

Livvy – is a concern, but suddenly less of a concern and no chasing numbers

Dan – how would this work with accommodation in a group

Livvy – publish emails, and non-group members to do it

George – unhappen about the privacy element

Megan – time consuming, not fair on future ones

Livvy – not binding

Kez – just taking an opinion poll

Donal – are you making the decision now or later?

Kez – whatever the room feels

Livvy – recommendations of drawing before the ballot

Gareth – not that time consuming

Ilija – convoluted, if your trying to stop hurt feelings, then that's good but ballot is inevitable. Cant we have an extenstion in response to late bids

General dissolution of discussion

Livvy – concerns over peer pressure of bidding against groups

Chris – you know your friends

Jess- 1st vs 3rd years

Dellar – no great advantages – not knowing is not helpful

Fidgett – you would always bid if you have a a better average

Dom – this confuses matters, and makes us less aware

Gareth – sudden, blind removals without announcements

Kez conducts a vote

1 ) last years prodeedure - 1

2) sealed bids sent to livvy – 1

3) gareth s system of no set deadline - alot

4) ilijas play off time – a few

5) generally unsure - 3

Meeting closes – 20.06
