- V. Notice of JCR Meetings must be advertised or published via the JCR Mailing List;
- VI. The President shall Chair the JCR Meeting, the Vice-President shall act as Secretary, and the Returning Officer shall ensure that the Constitution is followed;
- VII. If the President is unable to Chair, then the Vice-President will deputise. The Vice-President will then nominate another Member to act as Secretary;
- VIII. If both the President and Vice-President are unable to Chair, then the Treasurer will deputise, and will nominate another Member to act as Secretary;
- IX. If the President, Vice-President and Treasurer are unable to Chair the JCR Meeting, then the Members present at a Meeting will elect a temporary Chair and Secretary by a simple majority;

- XI. If at any time the Meeting ceases to be quorate, the Returning Officer must request an adjournment of ten minutes for the purpose of gathering other Members to make the meeting quorate again. If the Returning Officer or a designate fail in this, the Meeting shall be dissolved, with all remaining business carried over to the following Meeting;
- XII. No JCR Meeting, election or referendum may bind a future JCR Meeting, except in accordance with provisions to amend the Constitution;
- XIII. No Motion may transfer power over the Treasury from the JCR Meeting to the Executive Committee;

7. The Extraordinary JCR Meeting

- I. An Extraordinary JCR Meeting may be called at any time within the Full Term by the President if requested by a Member who has collected thirty-five Members including their own in support of such a motion;
- II. An Extraordinary Meeting must be called if the Treasurer believes that a Motion passed in a JCR Meeting will result in the JCR becoming insolvent (the JCR shall consider itself insolvent when there is no money in the JCR Current Account):

- a) This Meeting shall not require thirty-five signatures, and shall meet on the Wednesday immediately after the JCR Meeting;
 - b) The Treasurer will bring a Motion requesting the repeal of all Monetary Motions passed in the previous JCR Meeting, each Motion requiring a separate Motion to repeal;

 - e) If the Motion falls, then the Treasurer shall be obliged to pay the sums and the JCR shall be insolvent;

 - IV. The procedure for Extraordinary JCR Meetings will be the same as JCR Meetings, as established in section 9, clause I; with the exception of Officers' Reports, no minutes read from the previous meeting, and no poem;
 - V. The failure of the President to call an Extraordinary JCR Meeting within a forty-eight-hour time frame will lead to a motion of no-confidence being brought against the President by the Vice-President at the next JCR Meeting;
 - VI. An Extraordinary JCR Meeting requires the presence of at least five Members not on the JCR Committee to be considered quorate;

8. Motions

- I. All Motions must be proposed and seconded by Members;
- II. The President and Vice-President may not propose or second Motions, but may signal their approval of Motions;
- III. The Returning Officer may not propose, second, or signal their approval or disapproval of Motions, except where they believe Motions to be in contradiction of the Constitution;
- IV. The Vice-President must add any motion to the agenda backed by a petition of twenty Members, even if it is received after midnight on the Thursday before a JCR Meeting;
- V. The President shall have the right on discretion to admit any motion up until the JCR Meeting is declared officially open, even if it has not received twenty signatures as noted in section 8, clause IV;
- VI. A motion shall fall in the absence of its proposer and seconder unless they nominate a deputy and notify the Vice-President prior to the start of the JCR Meeting;
- VII. At the discretion of the Chair, deputies may be appointed upon reading the motion if one of the proposer and seconder not be present, with deputies appointed as below:

- a) Should only the proposer not be present, the seconder becomes the proposer and a new seconder is chosen from volunteers upon the reading of the motion;
 - b) Should the seconder be absent then a new seconder shall be chosen from volunteers upon the reading of the motion;
 - c) Should there be no volunteers to second the motion as outlined in (a) and (b), then the motion shall fall;
- VIII. The proposer may withdraw a motion provided that debate has not yet begun. Should debate be taking place and the proposer and seconder wish to withdraw the motion, acceptance of that withdrawal will be at the Chair's discretion;
- IX. Substantively similar Motions may not be proposed twice in one term, and not more than three times in one Academic Year;
- X. The Vice-President shall decide if a Motion is substantively similar to a previous Motion. This decision may be overturned by a petition backed by forty signatures of Members, received not less than forty-eight hours before the start of a meeting;

9. Course of JCR Meetings

I. The agenda of the meeting shall be arranged as follows.

1. Report from the JCR President
 - This shall be an opportunity for the President to update the JCR on the running of the Committee, the work of the Committee and upcoming events planned by the Committee. This shall also be the opportunity for the President to update the JCR on the latest news from Oxford SU Council and other affiliated bodies;
2. Officers' Question Time
 - There will then be an opportunity for JCR members to question the conduct and activities of any Committee member;
3. Reading from the Poet Laureate
 - The Poet Laureate will then read out a short poem to delight the hearts and minds of the JCR members. Should the Laureate be absent, the President may appoint someone to read the poem at their discretion;
4. Ratifications from Previous Meetings
 - The minutes of the previous meeting will first be put to the JCR for ratification. If there is a clear majority on a show of hands, then the Chair may take this as ratification without the need for a count, provided that there is no objection from the floor. If there is an objection from the floor, then the vote will be carried out in the normal way, with a simple majority required for ratification;
 - Then, should a motion require the JCR to ratify decisions of previous JCR or Extraordinary Meetings, such motions will be read and put to the JCR;
5. Constitutional amendments
 - Shall be read and debated consistent with the procedures set out in section 9, clause II;
6. Motions of no-confidence
 - Should a motion of no-confidence be brought against a JCR Officer in accordance with section 9, clause II, the motion will now be read. If the motion is brought against the President or

Vice-President, then they must cede the Chair or the minutes respectively for the entirety of the motion;

7. Charities motions

- The Chair shall read out the numbers and titles of all Charities motions submitted to the meeting in sequence;

8. Monetary motions

- All motions that involve the expenditure of JCR funds shall be read and debated in accordance with section 9, clause II.

9. Motions as submitted

- Motions will then be debated in line with the Vice-President's agenda, in accordance with section 9, clause II;

10. Emergency motions

- Emergency motions submitted via petition or Presidential discretion will then be debated in accordance with section 9, clause II;

11. Other business

- Anything of interest to members that has not already been covered in the meeting may be discussed and voted on. The President may also set debate on topics which may come up in Oxford SU Council, but which will not necessarily require a JCR resolution;

II. All motions shall be read and debated in JCR Meetings with the following procedure:

1. The Chair shall read the full text of the Motion, except where a Procedural Motion explicitly does not require this;
2. The Chair shall announce the Proposer and Seconder of the Motion;
3. The Chair shall ask for Short Factual Questions to be directed to the Proposer;
4. Seeing no Short Factual Questions, the Chair shall ask for Debate to begin;
5. Seeing no Debate, or upon a successful Procedural Motion to Vote, the Chair shall direct the Returning Officer to conduct a vote;

10. Points of Order

I. A Point of Order is an appeal to the Returning Officer or Chair for clarification or a ruling on correct constitutional procedure during a JCR Meeting;

II. A Point of Order may be raised by raising one's hand and saying clearly 'point of order';

III. Points of Order have:

- a) Precedence over all other business, but they may not be raised during a vote, unless related to the conduct of that vote;
- b) Priority in the following order:
 - A request for a quorum count;
 - A request for a ruling from the Chair;
 - A request for Constitutional clarification, as set out in section 5, clause VI;
 - A request for a recount;
 - A move to censure a JCR member in a Meeting;

IV. All Points of Order, except those directed at the Chair, shall be directed at the Returning Officer;

11. Amendments

- I. Any JCR Member except the President, Vice President or Returning Officer may propose an amendment to a motion, provided they have a seconder;
- II. Amendments can only be brought during debate of a motion. If a member wishes to amend a motion, then they must ask for the motion to be debated;
- III. If the proposer of a motion accepts the amendment as friendly, that amendment automatically becomes part of the original proposer's motion;
- IV. If the proposer of the motion does not accept an amendment, the amendment is deemed as "hostile". A debate confined to the hostile amendment ensues; if the amendment is subsequently passed by a simple majority, then the amendment becomes part of the motion and the proposer and seconder of the amendment are now the proposer and seconder of the substantive motion;
- V. There can be no amendment to an amendment that is still being debated;

12. Declaring an Amendment Out of Order

- I. An amendment shall not be discussed or voted upon if the Chair declares it to be out of order;
- II. The Chair may, at their discretion, declare an amendment to be out of order if, in their opinion, it cannot reasonably be expected to have arisen in debate/discussion on the topic area with which the original motion was concerned or if they feel discussion of the amendment could bring the JCR into disrepute;
- III. The Chair must declare an amendment out of order if, on their refusal to declare it out of order, more than one third of those voting on it oppose its discussion via a procedural motion challenging the decision of the Chair;
- IV. The Chair must declare an amendment out of order if it would change the substantive nature of the motion, or if it would move that motion into another section of the agenda;
- V. The Chair must declare an amendment admissible if, on their ruling it to be out of order, two-thirds or more of those voting approve its discussion via a procedural motion challenging the decision of the Chair;

13. Procedural Motions

- I. Procedural motions have precedence over all other business except Points of Order, but may not be raised during a speech or a vote;
- II. There shall be the following procedural motions, listed in order of priority:
 1. That the status of a motion be changed, and thus it should be taken next (this may only be raised between motions);
 2. That the Chair's ruling, e.g. on amendments being out of order, be overturned;
 3. That the decision of the President, Vice-President, and Returning Officer on a Constitutional Question be reversed;
 4. That a motion not be put;
 5. That a motion now be put, (i.e. that the meeting now come to a vote on the motion in question and that debate is ended, with the procedure laid out in section 9, clause II);

- Should such a procedural motion be passed, often called a “move to a vote”, the Chair has discretion to take the points of the JCR Members who had their hands raised at the time that the procedural motion was passed;
- 6. That a motion should be taken in parts, to be specified by the proposer of a procedural motion;
- III. Every procedural motion must have a proposer and a seconder; debate shall be confined to one speech for the procedural motion and one speech against;
- IV. The Chair shall rule to accept or reject procedural motions, except for procedural motions which seek to overturn the Chair’s ruling which shall be put to vote according to the procedure laid out by section 9, clause II;
- V. The overturning of a Chair’s ruling requires a two-thirds majority. The outcome of other procedural motions shall be decided by a simple majority;

14. Motions of No Confidence

- I. Any Member at any JCR Meeting may bring a Motion of No Confidence, provided that they can provide evidence of consistent breaches of Standing Orders by a JCR Officer, or evidence of another serious misdemeanour or felony;
- II. The Motion must be sent to the Vice-President before midnight on the Thursday before the JCR Meeting, and may not be brought as an Emergency Motion under any circumstances;
- III. Upon the receipt of the Motion, the Vice-President will inform the Officer of the Motion against them;
- IV. Due to the nature of the Motion, a Member may submit a Motion of No Confidence anonymously to the Vice-President, who will then bring the motion to the JCR, with the following conditions:
 - a) The Member must submit a completed Motion;
 - b) The Vice-President will announce to the JCR that the motion was submitted anonymously;
 - c) The Vice-President will be allowed to submit the Motion without a seconder;
 - d) The Member may submit a speech for the Vice-President to read in their place before the vote takes place;
 - e) The Vice-President shall not cede the minutes during this time;
- V. A Motion of No Confidence shall be considered a special resolution, and the vote will be conducted by secret ballot;
- VI. The Vice-President shall decide whether there is new evidence, and will inform the Member who submits the Motion if such evidence is insufficient for the Motion to be brought. This decision may be overturned by a petition of forty Members, received not less than 24 hours before the start of a JCR Meeting;

15. Resolution of Motions

- I. Voting shall not take place on a Motion until, in the absence of a Procedural Motion to Vote, there are no Members wishing to speak on the Motion as identified by the Chair;

- II. The President, the Vice-President and the Returning Officer may not vote on any motion, and shall not be counted as members of the electorate for voting purposes;
- III. Voting shall be carried out by a simple show of hands conducted by the Returning Officer, unless a secret ballot is required in accordance with section 15, clause X or section 14, clause V;
- IV. The proposer of the Motion, and one other Member, may give a short concluding speech in favour or opposed to the Motion respectively before the vote takes place;
- V. If a motion requires a simple majority to pass, the motion passes if the number of votes for the motion exceeds the number of votes against the motion, unless the number of abstentions or/and (in the event of a secret ballot) spoilt ballot papers exceeds the number of those voting for and against the motion;
- VI. If a motion requires a two-thirds majority to pass it shall pass if the number of votes for it is at least twice the number of votes against it;
- VII. All motions requiring the expenditure of JCR funds requires a two-thirds majority to pass;
- VIII. All motions concerning constitutional amendments requires a two-thirds majority to pass;
- IX. Ordinary Motions require a simple majority to pass;
- X. Any JCR Member may raise a Point of Order requesting a recount provided that they have the support of at least one other JCR Member;
- XI. Any JCR Member may propose a secret ballot as a method of resolution of motions that they deem controversial. In this case a secret ballot shall be used;

16. Mandates

- I. When the JCR has expressed its will by accepting any Motion, it shall be mandatory for all elected JCR Officers to give full expression to this policy at any meeting that they attend ex officio;
- II. As determined by the Returning Officer, a Motion's success or failure may be an explicit expression of JCR policy to be placed in the Policy Document as governed by section 17, clauses VI-VII, in which case it shall be mandatory for all elected JCR Officers to give full expression to this policy at any meeting they attend ex officio;
- III. The JCR may mandate any JCR Officer to vote in accordance with its wishes at any meeting that they attend ex officio;
- IV. The JCR may not mandate any Member who does not occupy a JCR Officer position; this includes the Equal Opportunities Representatives;
- V. JCR Officers are mandated to represent the JCR's interests within College and within the scope of their Standing Orders;
- VI. Failure of any JCR Officer to fulfil an explicit mandate conferred by a JCR Meeting in a full and timely manner may be considered a breach of that Officer's Standing Orders, and thus grounds for a Motion of No Confidence;

17. Referendums

- I. A referendum shall be called by the President if, and only if, the President is mandated to do so by an ordinary Motion of a quorate JCR Meeting;
- II. The result of a Referendum shall be binding on the JCR and JCR Officers, and shall have equal importance to a binding Motion;
- III. All referendums shall be conducted according to the same procedure as JCR elections, as established in section 32, clause I-IV;
- IV. All Members are entitled to vote in all binding referendums;
- V. The Returning Officer shall be responsible for conducting referendums;
- VI. The JCR shall have a Policy Document which shall contain within it enduring positions the JCR deems to be important;
- VII. Any motion that might be considered relevant to the Policy Document, as determined by the Returning Officer shall have a final element inserted into the Motion by the Vice-President, resolving to add the outcome into the Policy Document. This element shall be voted on separately from the rest of the Motion, and will require a simple majority;
- VIII. If the JCR wishes to remove or edit an element of the Policy Document, they may do so by an Ordinary Motion at any JCR Meeting;
- IX. The President may, at their discretion, organise non-binding ballots of JCR Members in order to gauge the views of the JCR;
