President & Chair: Michael Leslie
Vice-President & Secretary: Angelina Hong
Returning Officer & Constitutional Oracle: Jacob Harvey

1. Report from the President

[There are fifteen minutes of attempts to acquire quorum. The virtual meeting procedure is used to allow for the virtual participation of Aanika, Garion, and Oskari. Eventually, there is quorum.]

Michael: Good afternoon, everyone, thank you all for coming. Report from me, I had JCC this week, we had some discussion on the welfare changes that should hopefully be ratified today. College was very happy with that. As I said, it was the best compromise that we could come to. I got no-conned very briefly. The proposer then decided not to pursue it to the full extent. So, you're stuck with me. Angelina went on my behalf to Equality Committee. The main thing taken from that is from Freshers' Week in this coming year, there will be mandatory EDI training for all Freshers.

2. Questions to Officers

3. Reading from the Poet Laureate

4. Ratifications from Previous Meetings

AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION, MANDATES DOCUMENT, AND STANDING ORDERS IN RESPECT OF COMMUNITY OFFICERS

This JCR notes that—

- ❖ There are three Welfare Officers on the JCR Committee, who are the Welfare Officer (Equalities), Welfare Officer (Men's), and Welfare Officer (Women's);
- ❖ Though the most visible activity of the Welfare Officers is Welfare Tea, the Welfare Officer all have a variety of Standing Orders, such as ones relating to the signposting of support and liaison with Collegiate welfare;
- ❖ However, the role of the Welfare Officers does not emphasise, under the Standing Orders, the direct provision of welfare;
- ❖ Rather, it is the Peer Supporters and the resources of College, the Student Union (when affiliated), and the University which are intended to be the direct providers of services relating to welfare;
- ❖ For this reason, the College Welfare Committee has requested that the Welfare Officers be renamed, so as to clarify the responsibilities of the roles, with the necessary amendments to the Constitution and to the relevant annexes thereof.

This JCR believes that—

- ❖ It is appropriate for the names of roles to reflect the actual responsibilities of the roles;
- ❖ Furthermore, there are numerous outdated parts of the Standing Orders, such as reference to the nonexistent Access and Admissions Officer, which can be amended as part of this alteration;
- ❖ The name of “Community Officer” is a more accurate descriptor for the role of the current Welfare Officers, because a lot of the tasks of the Welfare Officers are related to engagement in the Corpuscular community;
- ❖ Therefore, it is warranted to amend the Constitution, the Standing Orders, and the Mandates Document to reflect this renaming and to correct minor errors.

This JCR resolves to—

- ❖ Amend Section 18, Clause II(n) of the Constitution so as to become the following: “Community Officer (Equalities);”;
- ❖ Amend Section 18, Clause II(o) of the Constitution so as to become the following: “Community Officer (Men’s);”;

- ❖ Amend Section 30, Clause I of the Constitution so as to become the following:

CORPUS CHALLENGE MOTION FOR THE EXTRAORDINARY MEETING

This JCR notes that—

- ❖ We currently have no food for Corpus Challenge;
- ❖ We do not have a way to play badminton or volleyball on Corpus Challenge;
- ❖ Robbie, who is setting up the sports pitches, has not been invited to the Corpus Challenge Formal.

This JCR resolves to—

- ❖ Mandate the Treasurer to provide the Clubs and Societies Officer with £222.50 for the purposes of buying a volleyball and/or badminton net, snacks for Corpus Challenge, and a ticket to Formal for Robbie;
- ❖ Mandate the Clubs and Societies Officer to spend the provided funds on buying a volleyball and/or badminton net, snacks for Corpus Challenge, and a ticket to Formal for Robbie.
